

Word on the Streets - May 2018

Tuesday 1st	Leadership for Resilience - Putting ACE-Awareness into Action - Edinburgh	Edinburgh College (Granton Campus) 350 West Granton Road Edinburgh EH5 1QE	6:30pm - 8:30pm
	Thousands of people across Scotland saw the film Resilience during 2017. The film explores the insights science is gaining about the long-term impact of Adverse Childhood Experiences. This growing awareness leaves us all with the question: What do we do with this knowledge? How do we put the insights into action? That's what we'll explore during this event.
Saturday 5th	Leadership for Resilience - Putting ACE-Awareness into Action - Inverness	Inverness College 1 College Campus University of the Highlands and Islands Inverness IV2 5NA	10:00am - 12:30pm
	Thousands of people across Scotland saw the film Resilience during 2017. The film explores the insights science is gaining about the long-term impact of Adverse Childhood Experiences. After showing the film at this event, the awareness leaves us with the question: What do we do with this knowledge? How do we put the insights into action? That's what we'll explore during this event.
Thursday 10th	Public Leadership NI Launch - Belfast	The Mac 10 Exchange Street West Belfast, BT1 2NJ	7:30pm - 9:00pm
	Public Leadership is about equipping and encouraging Christians to live out the God story in a way that changes culture – by intentionally and strategically taking a lead. The Public Leadership Programme is a pioneering initiative developed by Evangelical Alliance, that both invests in younger leaders and builds a network of national leaders. Following successful programmes in Scotland and England, they are excited to launch the first Northern Irish Programme.
Saturday 12th	Public Speaking and Media Training for Political Engagement - Birmingham	The Rock New Testament Church of God George Street, West Hockley, Birmingham B18 7HF	9:30am - 1:00pm
	Christians in Politics - Public Speaking and Media Training for Political Engagement. Christians in Politics is an all-party non-denominational organisation for Christians involved - or seeking to get involved - in politics and public life. Their aim is to inspire and equip Christians to greater and more positive engagement in politics and government.
	National Mindfulness Day for Christians - London	St Paul's Ealing, Ridley Avenue, Ealing, London, W13 9XW	10:00am - 5:00pm
	Conference for Christians interested in the area of mental health and spirituality. In particular its focus is to enable Christians to engage with mindfulness for health and mindfulness of God in an informed way. The keynote speakers are all experts in this field and will bring psychological, biblical and historical perspectives to the cultural phenomenon of mindfulness. The conference will be invaluable for any Christian interested in this area of mental health and spirituality.
	Re:Work - London	LICC, St. Peter's Church, Vere Street, London W1G 0DQ	10:00am - 6:00pm
	How can I integrate my Christian faith into my work? How does my desire to succeed, my ambition, fit alongside the call to seek first the Kingdom of God? What do good relationships look like in a workplace driven by 24/7 connectivity? For Christians in their 20s, the workplace presents a whole host of unique challenges. Re:Work is a conference for 20-somethings run by LICC. It seeks to support young professionals along their career journey, encouraging and equipping them for discipleship in the workplace.
	The Youth Evangelism Conference 2018 - Warrington	Warrington, UK	10:00am - 4:00pm
	In 2018, theYECuk looks stir the nation to action. Following the theme #gospeloffensive, the conference will address the ways in which the truth about Jesus presents an affront to our culture, and will call us to speak it anyway. Surely the church has spent too long adapting and shrinking. Jesus said that the kingdom of God is forcefully advancing. Could it be time for a new boldness in youth ministry that, by the Spirit of God actively sets out to captivate the hearts of a generation?
Wednesday 16th	Self harm Youth course - Sheffield	Fusion Hub Talbot Specialist School Lees Hall Road Sheffield S8 9JP	9:30am - 4:00pm
	This Fusion training provides an opportunity for individuals from a broad range of professional arenas to attend and get a detailed overview of self-harm and working with self-harm. It will enhance your foundational understanding and equip you with brief intervention strategies to support young people who self-harm.
Saturday 19th	National Mindfulness Day for Christians - Leeds	Bridge Community Church Rider Street Burmantofts LEEDS LS9 7BQ	9:30am - 4:30pm
	Conference for Christians interested in the area of mental health and spirituality. In particular its focus is to enable Christians to engage with mindfulness for health and mindfulness of God in an informed way. The keynote speakers are all experts in this field and will bring psychological, biblical and historical perspectives to the cultural phenomenon of mindfulness. The conference will be invaluable for any Christian interested in this area of mental health and spirituality.
	Christian Perspectives in Early Years Education - Yeovil	Elim Church Southville Yeovil BA21 4JA	10:00am - 3:00pm
	Love Early Years encourages and supports practitioners working in early years care and education. This conference will enable you to become better equipped to meet the needs of young children, building strong foundations for present and future generations. / We have a vision to see Christians as beacons of excellence in the Early Years workforce, operating from strong convictions, and in partnership with many others across our country and overseas.

Monday 21st	Fair Pay for Fair Work: Looking at Executive Pay - London Launch of St Paul's Institute's new paper entitled Fair Pay for Fair Work which offers five clear recommendations on how to make executive pay more transparent and more just. The objective of this event is to; Review the suggested policy recommendations, Consider how all these recommendations fit with the government's reform programme, and Reflect on how best to build investor support and engagement for these reforms.	Wren Suite Crypt of St Paul's Cathedral St Paul's Cathedral Churchyard London EC4M 8AD	2:00pm - 4:30pm
	"Who is my Neighbour?" The Global and Personal Challenge - London Revd Dr Sam Wells chairs an exciting panel discussion with Rabbi Shulamit Ambalu, Dr Megan Warner, Revd Richard Carter and Sam Ahmad Ziaee, who will tell the story of his journey aged 16 from Afghanistan to the UK, for the public launch of Who Is My Neighbour? The Global and Personal Challenge, a new book edited by Richard Carter and Sam Wells, and published by SPCK. / The event is free and open to all.	St Martin-in-the-Fields Trafalgar Square London WC2N 4JJ	7:00pm - 8:30pm
Wednesday 23rd	Faith in Research conference 2018 - Birmingham Insights from keynote speakers: Rt Rev Dr Nigel Peyton, ("More or less the same? Church of England Parish Clergy in the 21st Century") and Heather Buckingham, Church Urban Fund ("Church in Action: A National Survey of Church-based Social Action"). You will also be able to attend two of four breakout sessions which will tackle: Wellbeing, Cultural trends and the church, Chaplaincy, Society and congregations.	Novotel Hotel 70 Broad Street Birmingham B1 2HT	9:30am - 4:30pm
Thursday 24th	Be an Ethical Capitalist with Julian Richer - London Talk by Julian Richer, the founder of Richer Sounds, one of Britain's favourite retailers, Julian will show why when businesses and enterprises aim to be a force for good as well as for wealth creation, when they commit themselves to serve not just their shareholders but the wider community, they will invariably reap the benefits. 15% of the company's profits are donated to charitable causes. Julian Richer is the founder of Acts 435, set up to help those in need.	The Salvation Army's Regent Hall 275 Oxford Street London W1C 2DJ	9:00am - 10:30am
	Exploring models of accommodation and support for newly recognised refugees - Leeds The event will explore refugee accommodation models within the network and is aimed at refugee accommodation providers, both emergency and long-term, as well as those exploring how, when and if to get involved. / Activities throughout the day will address how providers can effectively meet needs, develop capacity and work with others. Sessions will include input from Local Authorities and Housing Associations as well as NACCOM members.	St George's Conference Centre Great George Street Leeds LS1 3BR	10:00am - 4:00pm