

Word on the Streets - September 2018

Wednesday 5th	Winter Night Shelter Training - London	London Diocesan House 36 Causton Street London SW1P 4AU	6:00pm - 8:30pm
	Before the Winter Night Shelter season starts this timely training is aimed at raising the confidence and competence of churches as they encounter increasingly complex needs. Covering the following areas: / Supporting Refugees and Migrants / Winter Night Shelters and Trafficking / What Benefits can our guests access? / Mental Health / Drugs and Alcohol
Tuesday 11th	How To Start And Run A "Memory Cafe" - London	London Churches Social Action, St Andrew by the Wardrobe, St Andrews Hill &amp; Queen Victoria Street, London, EC4V 5DE	11:00am - 1:30pm
	A Memory Café is a great model for supporting elderly people in general. Workshop run by Steve Morris, author of a Grove Booklet on the subject.
Wednesday 12th	Social Enterprise World Forum 2018 - Edinburgh	EICC The Exchange Edinburgh EH3 8EE	9:30am -
	An international event for social entrepreneurs and social enterprise practitioners, policy makers, academics and investors, community leaders, activists, supporters and more from all over the world to come together, share wisdom, build networks and explore how to create a more sustainable future.
	Curating Spaces of Hope: Building Capacity for Leadership - Chester	Chester Cathedral Chester CH1	12:00pm - 6:00pm
	This series comprises 3 events on the themes of leadership, social enterprise, coproduction and how they shape action in forming and sustaining Spaces of Hope. The first symposium will inspire with stories of leadership that are guiding public service reform. It will explore shared principles that speak across boundaries in the public square equipping us to embrace our differences and re-connect with our neighbours.
Thursday 13th	Social Enterprise World Forum 2018 - Edinburgh - An international event for social entrepreneurs and social enterprise practitioners, policy makers, academics and investors, community leaders, activists, supporters and more from all over the world to come together, share wisdom, build networks and explore how to create a more sustainable future. - EICC The Exchange Edinburgh EH3 8EE
Friday 14th	Social Enterprise World Forum 2018 - Edinburgh	EICC The Exchange Edinburgh EH3 8EE	- 5:00pm
	An international event for social entrepreneurs and social enterprise practitioners, policy makers, academics and investors, community leaders, activists, supporters and more from all over the world to come together, share wisdom, build networks and explore how to create a more sustainable future.
Tuesday 18th	Universal Credit: Understanding the new landscape - London	St Pauls, Hammersmith W6 9PJ	10:30am - 12:30pm
	2-hour interactive, practical training session about Universal Credit by CapitalMass. Universal Credit is the biggest change in the welfare system for generations. The training is aimed at anyone working for or volunteering with a church. This will be informal, informative session with plenty of time for questions and discussion.
Thursday 20th	Creating Happy Productive Social Enterprises - London	Happy Computers Ltd, Robert Dolan House, 9 Alie Street, London, E1 8DE	9:30am - 5:00pm
	Aimed at leaders and senior team members in social enterprises, this seminar will be engaging, interactive and fun. You will talk with and meet at least two dozen people from the Social Enterprise/mutual sector, all committed to creating great organisations to work for.
Wednesday 26th	National Estate Churches Network - London	St Francis at The Engine Room Unit A Eagle Heights Lebus Street London N17 9FU	9:30am - 1:00pm
	With Bishop Ric Thorpe & Bishop Philip North - London City Mission & The Message Trust.
	Making Scotland the World's First ACE-Aware Nation - Glasgow	SEC Armadillo Exhibition Way Glasgow G3 8YW	10:00am - 4:00pm
	More and more of us are coming to understand what science is telling us about the impact of childhood stress on adult health and happiness. This one-day conference will bring together some of the most inspirational speakers in Scotland, to help us consider how we get this information on Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) to every citizen of our nation. For UK as well.

Saturday 29th	Practical Evangelism Training: Social Action - Doorways to the Gospel - London Join London City Mission for a day of interactive, practical training by experts in urban mission. You'll learn how social action can be an effective doorway to sharing Jesus in a sensitive and relevant way.	London City Mission 175 Tower Bridge Road London SE1 2AH	9:00am - 4:00pm
	Lead Well - The Mind and Soul Foundation Conference - London How do you lead others whilst also being attentive to your own emotional health needs? How to you keep your boundaries healthy whilst also being distinctly compassionate and Christian? How can you lead well when you have your own emotional or mental health struggles? How can you influence your leadership context to create a culture that is supportive of people who are struggling with mental health issues? These are just a few of the core questions we are hoping to address	St Pauls, Onslow Square, London	9:30am - 4:30pm
	Learning Lab: Sexual Exploitation in the UK - London Want to explore the concepts surrounding Prostitution and Trafficking in the UK and your part to play in a effective response? Considering volunteering or making a career move to the women's sector? This interactive learning day is for you.	The Methodist Church 6 Crestfield St Kings Cross WC1H 8AT	10:30am - 4:30pm